

- Webinar -Internationalising Teacher Education in Europe*Is virtual collaboration the “new way to go”?Part II: Practical Examples and RecommendationsWednesday, 10 June 2020

10:00

Welcome

- Ragnhild Berg, Director of Diku Brussels office

10:05

Internationalisation of teacher education in Europe:
The untapped potential of virtual collaboration

Practical recommendations from the EVALUATE Project

- Mirjam Hauck, Senior lecturer at the Open University, UK

Q&A

10:20

Policy and initiatives to foster the internationalisation of teacher education in Europe:

- Tabea Kaiser,
The German teacher education context and programme example
“Lehramt.International” by the DAAD, Germany
- Christine Schütz Fløisand,
The Norwegian teacher education context and programme example “NOTED” by Diku, Norway

10:35

From physical to virtual mobility: Experiences from the teacher education field

- Dr. Kathrin Wild,
Scientific project coordinator of "Lehramt International/Partners in Mobility" at the University of Flensburg, Germany

Q&A session

- Dr. Cathrine Tømte,
Course coordinator for digitalisation in schools and teachers'
professional digital skills at the University of Agder, Norway

Q&A session

11:25

Closing remarks

- Nina Salden, Director of DAAD Brussels office

11:30

End of webinar